July 2011

Lodi Valley Quilters' Guild, PO Box 132, Lodi, WI 53555

Bring your wallet

You'll want to have your wallet ready at the upcoming July 11 LVQG meeting. Signup will begin for the one-day retreat and for the bus trip to the Wisconsin Quilt Expo.

The one-day retreat will be held on Saturday, September 17, at the Lodi Sports and Rec Center. You don't want to miss this—it's a great opportunity for a day of quilting with your LVQG friends. There's quilting and lunch and quilting and demos and quilting and prizes—you get the picture. Cost is $10 for the entire day including lunch.

The Guild is again sponsoring a bus trip to the Wisconsin Quilt Expo on Friday, September 9. Leave the driving to us and enjoy a day of quilting pleasures. Cost is only $7 including your ticket. Parking alone at the Alliant Energy Center is $6 a day, so this is a deal!

Bookmarks are ready

New LVQG bookmarks will be available at the July meeting. Be sure to pick one up as a reminder of LVQG events for the rest of 2011.

Village Creek open on meeting nights

Guild member Patti Hellenbrand will open her shop, Village Creek, on guild meeting nights due to popular demand. Beginning this month, the shop will be open from 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. as an added convenience for those who travel to Lodi for the monthly guild meetings.

Ready, set, quilt

This month's program is Dee Van Driel who will present Quilting 101.

No Hearts & Hands this month—will resume in August.
